

What does it mean to be a volunteer urban forester?

1. Sense of pride and self-worth in your accomplishments
2. Being there to nurture the Hudson urban forest of the future
3. Being part of the solution, not the problem
4. Genuinely helping the Hudson community
5. Learning about the health and care of trees

What do I get for being a volunteer urban forester?

1. Become part of a growing organization of dedicated professionals
2. Educational opportunities
3. Satisfaction of making a real difference in Hudson
4. A really cool hat ☺

What can I do as a volunteer urban forester?

1. Learn about Young Tree Training and Principles of Pruning
2. Work with a team to correctively prune small city street trees for future growth. No climbing is involved.
3. Support Arbor Day activities
4. Support Educational seminars about trees and ecology for the 21st century

What is required to be a volunteer urban forester?

1. Be a resident of Hudson
2. Complete the required training for the position
3. Complete the Hudson volunteer urban forester application form available at Hudson Department of Public Works, 1769 Georgetown Road, Hudson, Ohio
4. Participate in at least four urban forestry field sessions (usually on Saturday mornings)
5. Observe safe work practices to protect yourself and others
6. A good sense of humor, a zest for life, and a love of the outdoors